After reading The Outsiders, the seventh grade lit class had a Greaser/Soc day. The students dressed the part, had Pepsi and eggs with grape jelly, and chocolate cake. They are also working on being authors as they are writing an extra chapter to S. E. Hinton's book as a culminating activity after finishing the classic novel.

DEVELOPMENTAL SCREENING, PRE-SCHOOL ROUND-UP & KINDERGARTEN PRE-REGIST.

The Altamont School District and the Department of Early Childhood are offering a free developmental preschool screening for birth to five year olds on Thurs., Feb. 28 (9am-3pm) and Fri., March 1 (9am-12pm) at the Altamont Christian Church. A developmental screening will give parents information on the growth of their child in the areas of concepts, motor skills and speech and language skills. A vision and hearing screening is also provided. The screening will last about one hour. Kindergarten pre-registration forms will be available for AGS & ALIS at the screening. The Altamont Lions Club will also be available with Kids Sight USA. This is a free service. Forms to register for the screening are in the ALIS school office and should be returned to the Altamont Grade School before Feb. 15. Call Leslie Wendling at 618-483-5171 for more information.

K and 1st grade students celebrated the 100th day of school on Tues., Jan. 29, with several special activities.
